How's Your House?

By James D. Craig, PhD, LMFT

Words referring to the family occur thousands of times in the Bible—more than faith, hope, and love combined. One of them is “house”, a term used to describe the ingenuity and intimacy needed to shelter a healthy family. Ten questions can test the strength of your house.

Do you...

	Always	Sometimes	Never
1. Communicate love?	3	2	1
2. Thank God for your blessings?	3	2	1
3. Help your neighbors?	3	2	1
4. Donate generously to church and charity?	3	2	1
5. Repent frequently?	3	2	1
6. Forgive freely?	3	2	1
7. Entertain graciously?	3	2	1
8. Work diligently?	3	2	1
9. Play happily?	3	2	1
10. Save wisely?	3	2	1

If you scored a perfect 30, check your honesty! We all have room to improve.
Scores between 20 and 27 reflect structural integrity.
Scores between 10 and 19 may indicate a need for remodeling.
